Kyakweera,I happened to have read your other posting about you failing to upload the picture of the child...naye oba webmaster yagitadde wa?Kubanga nginonyeza nkudemu naye sijilaba.But all I remember is that you needed some help.Unfortunately I can't give you my e-mail here but the best option is to contact the webmaster and send the foto as an attachment to their e-mail so he can post it here.Is the child still missing??
