
Mazongoto by Dr Hieldman

Posted by Kalibattanya - 2007/10/11 21:01

I think the whole of Uganda is now living by a culture called the mazongoto culture. I see my fellow countrymen singing the mazongoto songs and dancing the mazongoto dances. They talk the mazongoto talk and walk the mazongoto walk. They are a bunch of mazongoto fellas. That's why I really do like this song, because it keeps me in synch with what is going on back home. And I'm mazongoto happy about it!!!

I'll side with you Queenie. I mean people can stay in love with thousands of km between them. We in the Diaspora know best about this. So how can a mere metre be such a problem to sing about? Mr Hielderman's is a mazongoto couple, having a mazongoto affair.
