Survival abroad

I don't blame some gals who get married to old men abroad. It's because guys abroad they fear responsibility and they claim that they love white gals than African gals. We have different background were a few p'ple are not that all patient. Many gals connect with those guys provided for care, loved and security. If all Ugandan men don't fear responsibility then things will work out.

Vivian - not certain if the gentleman caller at tonight's show (3/10/07) was talking about marriage or just plain sex 4 money exchange between those ladies that have opted for this method of survival.

That aside, what then of guys that have also opted to use sex to survive abroad?
