Chogm pork joint

Chogm Pork Joint? "Why not? Who doesn't want to be associated with the event? Anyway it was the in thing when Mr Kayondo put this business in place so he called it that," explains the butcher at the Namuwongo - based joint. The business was also meant to target the Chogm event according to the butcher man. He is not willing to explain this saying it is obvious, though honestly it is not to me; is it the delegates being targeted or is the proprietor for the four-month-old pork joint hoping that Ugandans will need more pork during this Chogm season?

Whatever his reasons, Mr Kayondo opened another Chogm pork joint along Ggaba Road and doesn't intend to change the name after the meeting to remind him of the year Uganda hosted the very important meeting. "After all I don't think any of the other infrastructure being put up by the government for Chogm like the roads and hotels will be removed or changed after the meeting," reasons the butcher man.
