Look at Morgan Fleeman bannange he is the Kings man he would be the Katambala and lead the good people Butambala and the King would appreciate his work to put the county in order because he would not reave any child out of school every kid will lean on him. Dan Groover oyo ye Gyagenda Omar yandibadde meeya wa Kampala ekibuga nakitereeza. Eddie Murphy ne Sean Combs they are the people who have done so wrong to themselves not to look on the map of Africa to see where Uganda in lacated and Buganda mainly where bajjajjabwe awaiting on them, our fresh and blood who seem not to know where their family tree was planted.

Harry Belafonte, he's from Bulemezi, a great great great grandson of a great warrior, who was known for his wisdom and military expertize. Bill Cosby and Eretha Franklin share the same roots. Their related ancestors grew up in the home of a humble carpenter. It was said though, that this carpenter's wife was so beautiful, the King fell madly in love with her. She bore him two children, one and one. The girl, Eretha's g.g.g.g. grandmother, was the first woman to command an army, go to war and fight like a man. While Cosby's ancestor was a priest of the God of Creationland. One of the very few known from those ancient years.
