This is really about books that were never read. This is to encourage everyone to read more books and get better informed. Otherwise, there is a danger of doing things and going places you shouldn't.

This is a Nigerian immigrant in Hungary. He is a singer who some say is without talent. He is Nazi too, or so he pledges in this video. This video caused scandal after it was released, on Jan 25 2008. He said he has been forced to do that, but if you see this video, you can see that he is not frightened at all. What's your opinions?

The word Nazi is enough to identify the situation. You're black in Hungary and you don't know they turn against you? Ignorance of the highest order and put on a show in the Theater of the Absurd to earn himself an award of infamy and begotry. Begots has never earned any credit in this modern world he should be ashamed of himself if he can't remember what happened in South Africa when they failed before our eyes. He shouldn't come back to Africa. Wo Wo that's why they put people's souls in the bottle now I begin to understand Nazi is not something to joke with.
