
Connect Forum - The Courage of our convictions

Looking back fellow forum members, am happy to report that for a year and a few months now, this forum has been running steadily. You have made it what it is now and possibly what it will be the next time we review it in the same light.

Over this period, we have made friends. We have made contacts. We have been connected. We have become a family. We have grown. We have met challenges. We have come face to face with temptations.

Your contributions over the years have given this forum personality and character. Your presence has always made it stand mighty and tall to the point of becoming an object of desire.

The management of Connect Uganda would like to thank you all for your time, passion, love, belief and support. Your unshakable belief in this forum right from the start without any need for proof or evidence of what it would be one year on has finally paid off.

Forum members, that was and still is the courage of your convictions.

Mwebale nnyo bannange and lets keep the fire burning!
